

Pretty Pretty Flower Scarf

by gnathalie2

It's about 60 inches long. I have tons of stitch dictionary books, and for the life of me i could not get a couple of them right!!! I have been wanting to make a flower scarf that is all one piece, not a bunch of flowers sewn together. So after a few failed attempts, i ended up just winging it, so here is how i made it:

Materials:

Size G hook

ww yarn ( i used Caron Simply Soft in pink)

Pattern:

This scarf is made like a two way street. First go up one end, turn around, and go back down.

Chain 6, join with a sl st

1. (first 2 petals): chain 3, 2 dc in next ch, chain 3, sl st in same space, chain 3, 2 dc in next ch, chain 3, sl st in same space.

2. Chain 17. Sl st into 6th ch from hook. Repeat #1.

Repeat # 1 & 2 until the scarf is as long as you want it to be. End with # 1.

Now for the way back down:

3. Repeat #1 (now you have all four petals on the flower)

4. chain 5. Sl st into 5th ch of ch-17. Chain 6. Sl st into next flower. Repeat #1.

Now repeat 3 and 4 until you're back at the beginning!! End with #1.

So, pretty much the pattern is half a flower up one way, then the other half going back down. The sl st that you do into the ch-17 is just so that you have a more put together looking scarf!!
